

If the SE is right, the t-statistic should be $N(0,1)$

Placebo simulation (true effect = 0): vanilla 31% reject, robust 28% reject, cluster-robust 5% reject. Target: 5%.

Charcoal curve: $N(0,1)$ target. Red dashed lines: ± 1.96 . A histogram wider than the curve = over-rejection.